THE MOST REVEREND STEPHEN S. WOZNICKI, D.D.
Bishop of Saginaw

HIS HOLINESS, PIUS XII,
Pope of the Marian Year

"Thou shalt rear up the tabernacle according to the pattern that was shown thee in the mount."

Mary was the first tabernacle of Christ, the Son of God. Given to us as our Mother on Calvary, Mary will help us fashion a worthy tabernacle for the Holy of Holies.

MARY OUR MODEL

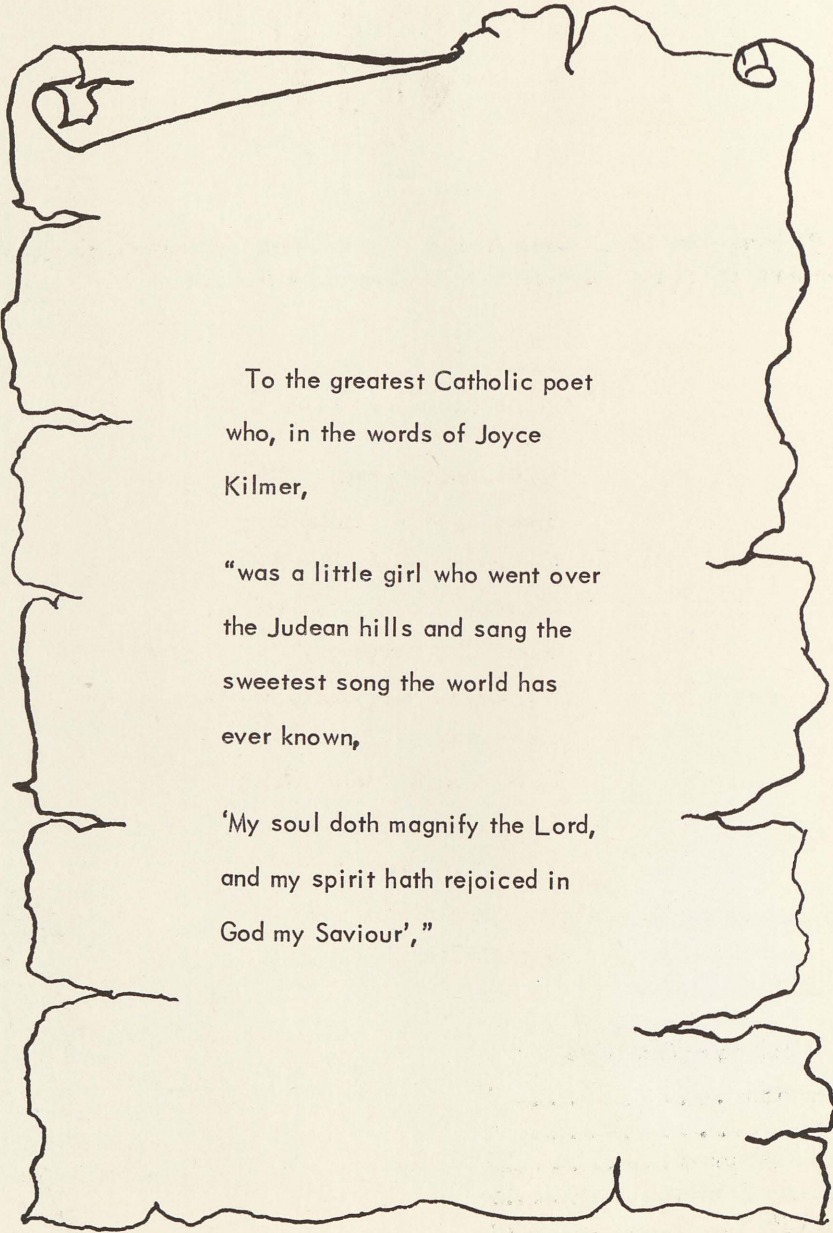

With hands that work; minds that think; and hearts that love -- the Marian Way, we shall make our tabernacles according to the Pattern.

Dedication ...

To the greatest Catholic poet
who, in the words of Joyce
Kilmer,

"was a little girl who went over the Judean hills and sang the sweetest song the world has ever known,

'My soul doth magnify the Lord,
and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour',"

Pastor's Message

Dear Graduates of 1954:

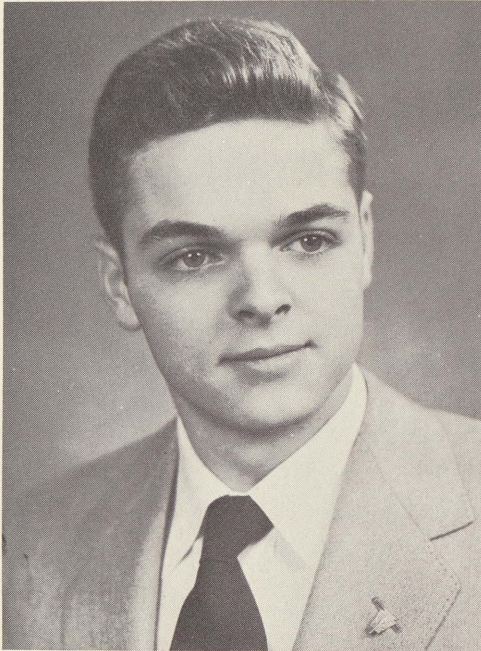

Congratulations on completing the high school course at St. Andrew's!

It is my hope and prayer that you will bless all with whom you live in the future with the sound Christian character that has been developed in you here.

May you always be loyal to the Church and your own parish as sincere Catholics and American citizens.

Spiritual Patterns

Held aloft in the arms of Mary is the Light of the world
Who illuminates our spiritual tabernacle.

Sodality

Hand in hand with the Sodalist's spiritual objective of personal sanctity goes apostolic work.

Here a group of sodalists are shown ready to leave St. Andrew with Christmas baskets for the needy at Guadalupe

Shown in the picture with Rev. Joseph T. Shinnars, S.J. are Nancy Cherry, Valerie Fogus, Mary Ellen Gase, and Gretchen Loos.

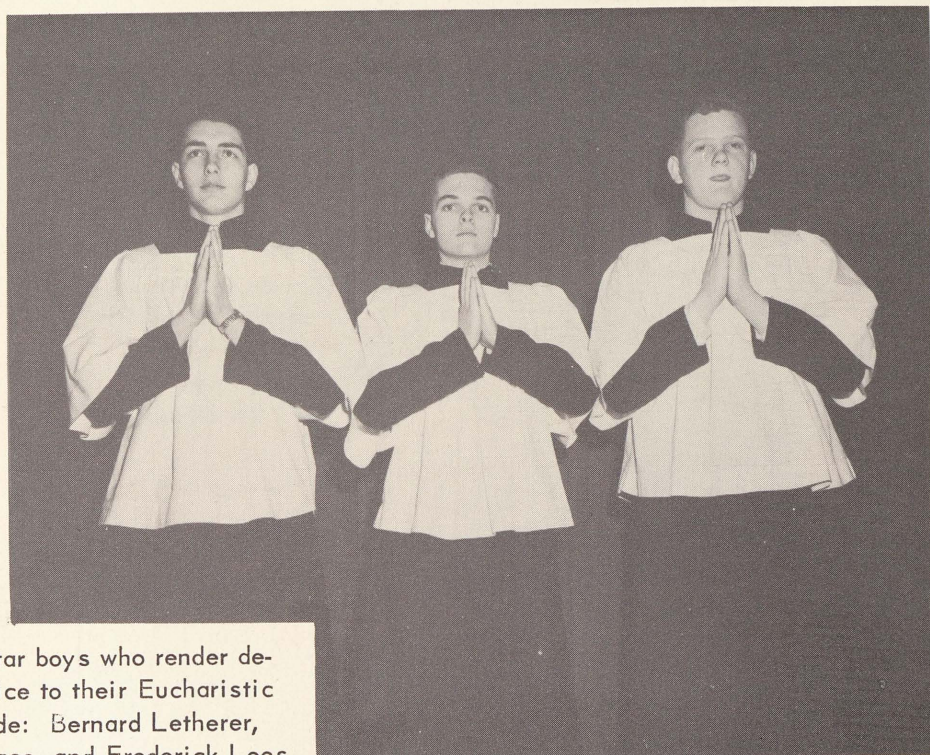

The 1953 S.S.C.A. Held in Chicago, provided companions of Mary with an opportunity to learn much about the vocation of a Sodalist.

Sodality officers and their S.S.S. representative have much to talk over in plans for the Marian Year.

Sodality officers: Secretary Nancy Cherry, Co-prefects Leona Light and James Black, Treasurer, Patrick Lafferty, and S.S.S. representative Lawrence Fleischmann.

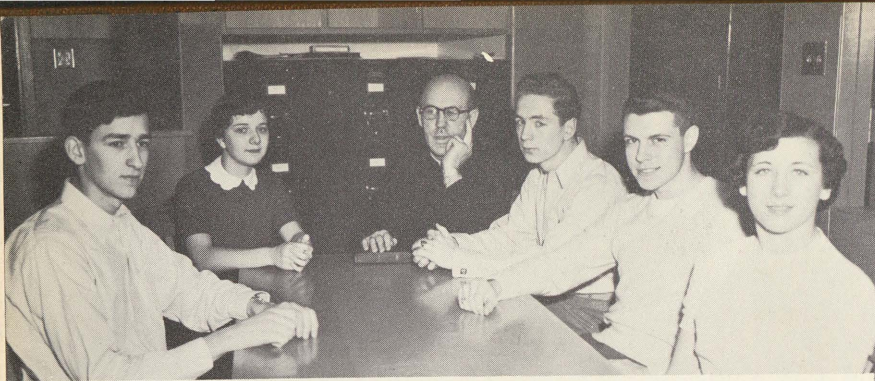

Altar Boys

Senior altar boys who render devoted service to their Eucharistic King include: Bernard Letherer, Kenneth Gase, and Frederick Loos.

Reverend Denis Law and a group of retreatants talking over the retreat held Feb. 1-2. These were the special days of helpful spiritual guidance during which important check-ups were made in the spiritual building plans.

The study of the Bible formed an interesting project for this Freshman Religion class during Bible Week.

"This is the Life," an original one-act sketch by Rev. Ronald McMahon was given by Senior students on October 22 in observance of National Catholic Youth Week.

Religion

"When Blossoms Flowered 'Mid the Snows" was the theme of the Andean float entered in the Christmas parade sponsored by Saginaw Merchants.

Scholastic Efforts

We shall learn to identify the Pattern through earnest scholastic efforts.

English

Many an enjoyable experience is provided in literature. Sharing these experiences we find a group of Freshmen and their teacher, Mrs. Margaret Bush.

Members of the Freshman English class point out the way to better reading through good books.

One of the Sophomore English classes take time off from regular classwork to enjoy a special study through the eye of the bell-optican.

Latin

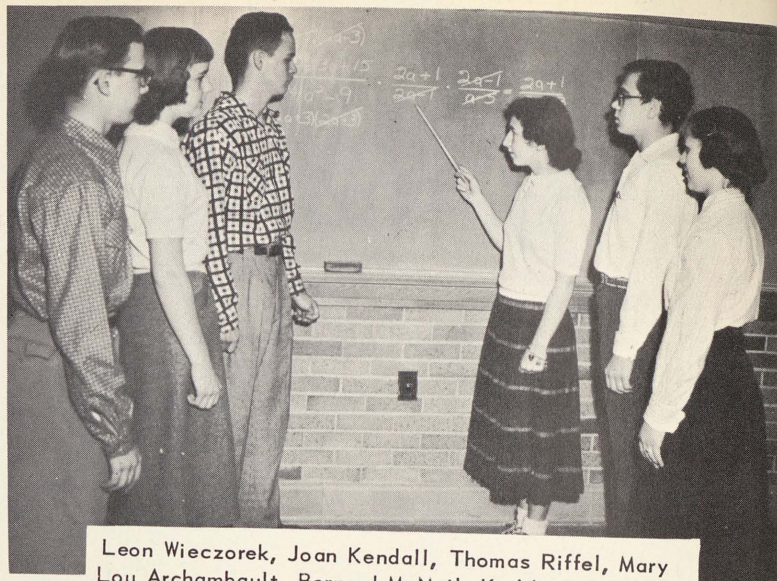

Who'd ever dream of all the English words derived from--

Habitare,
Dico
and Plenus?

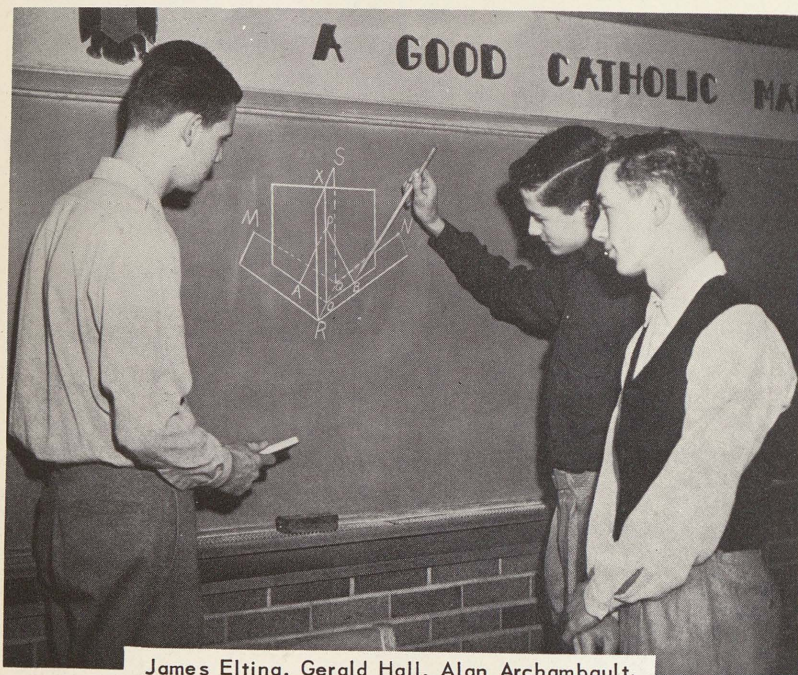

Derivatives offer an interesting challenge to Sister Mary Antoinette's ninth grade Latin students.

Math

Leon Wiczorek, Joan Kendall, Thomas Riffel, Mary Lou Archambault, Bernard McNeil, Kathleen Brockitt.

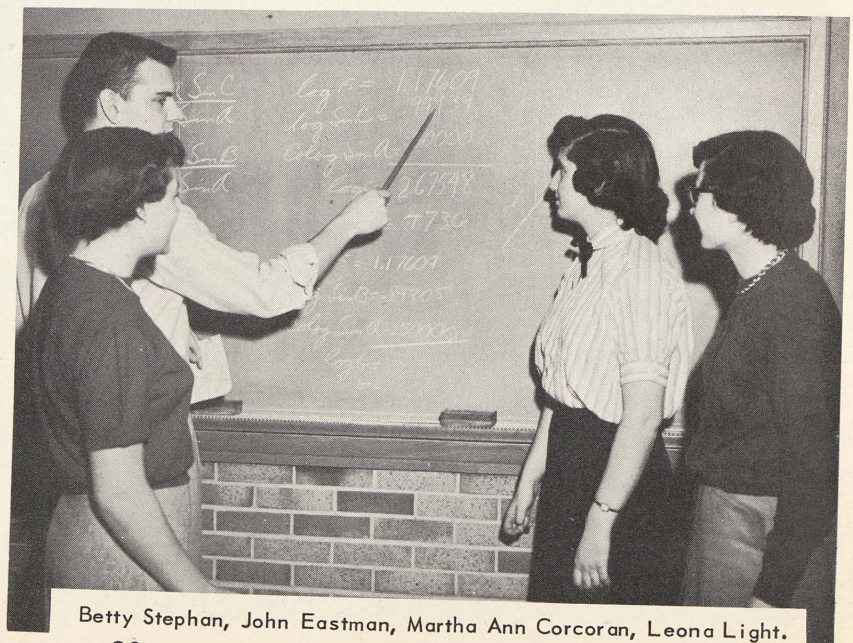

Algebraic figures challenge these Freshmen.

James Elting, Gerald Hall, Alan Archambault.

Seniors are solving a problem in Navigation by Trigonometry.

An investigation in three dimensional Geometry by a group of Seniors.

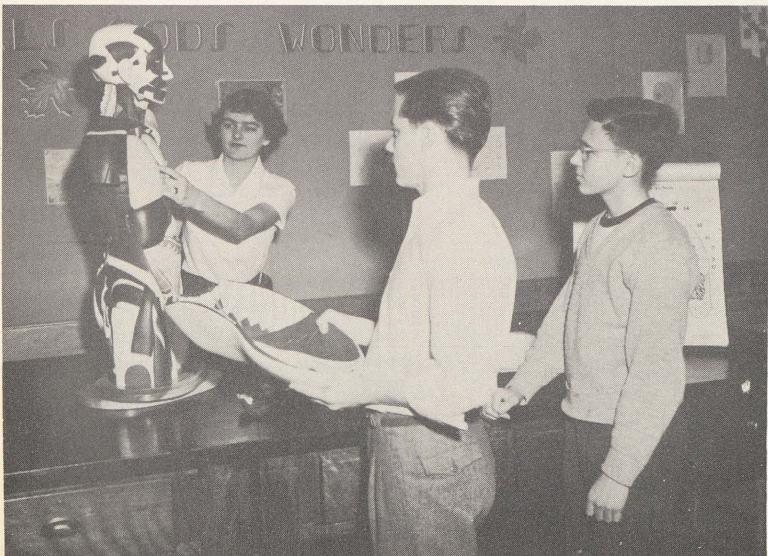

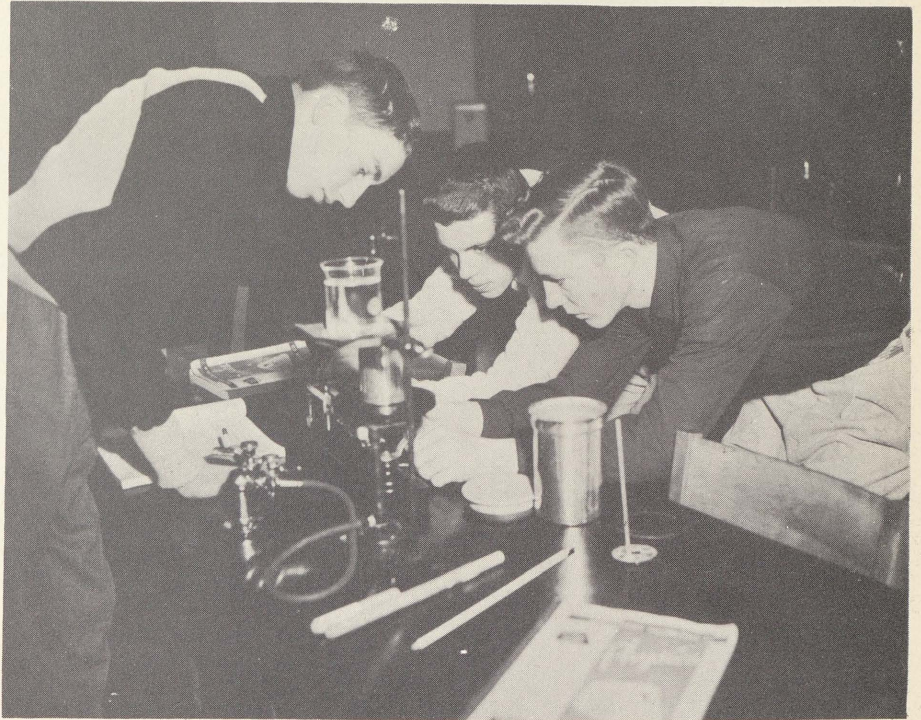

Betty Stephan, John Eastman, Martha Ann Corcoran, Leona Light.

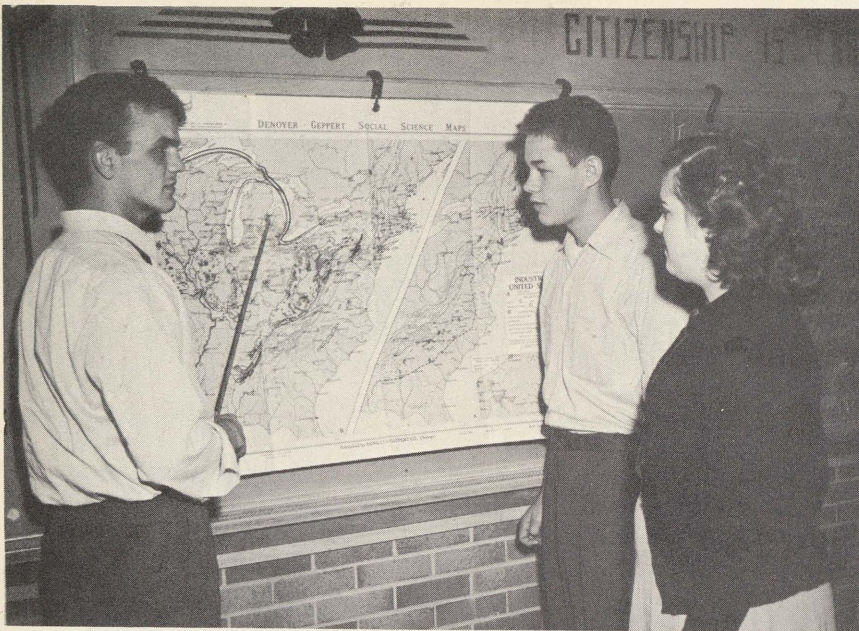

Sister Mary Imelda presents the Bausch-Lomb award to Mary Leona Light.

Science

Verifying facts is the aim of these senior students studying Physics.

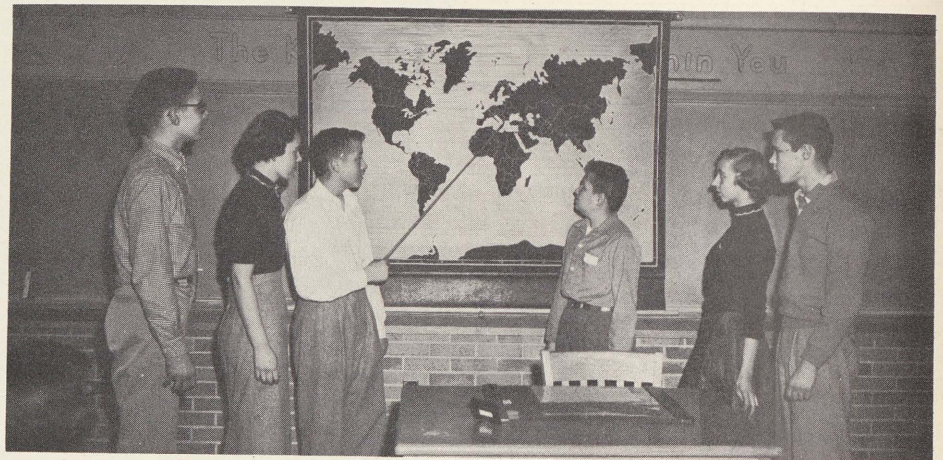

The study of the human body, one of God's marvels of creation, is of interest to these General Science pupils.

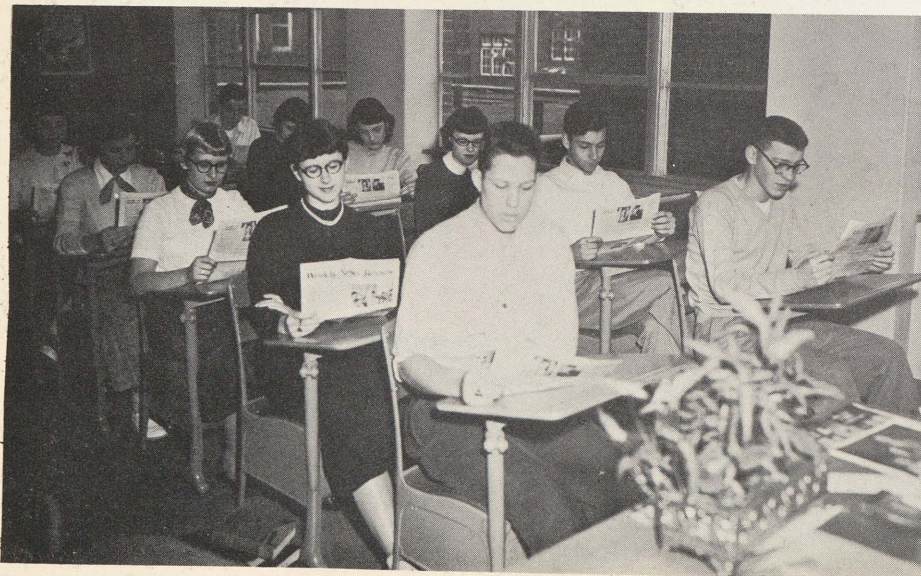

Social Science

Brotherhood in the pattern of Christian democracy is brought out in the study of World Geography.

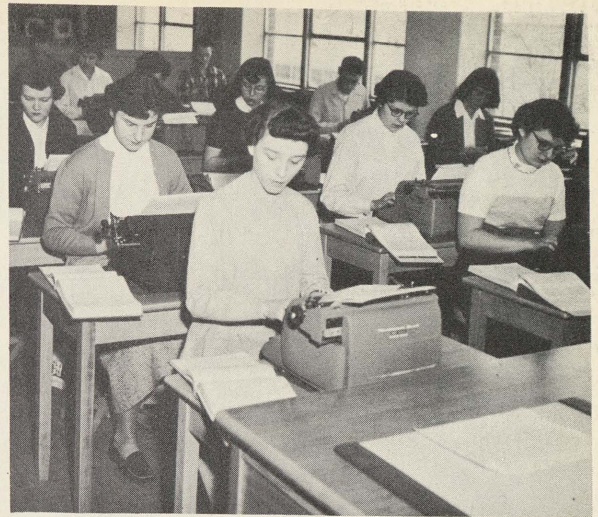

History gives to studious Andrewites many a pattern as they study the principles of democracy.

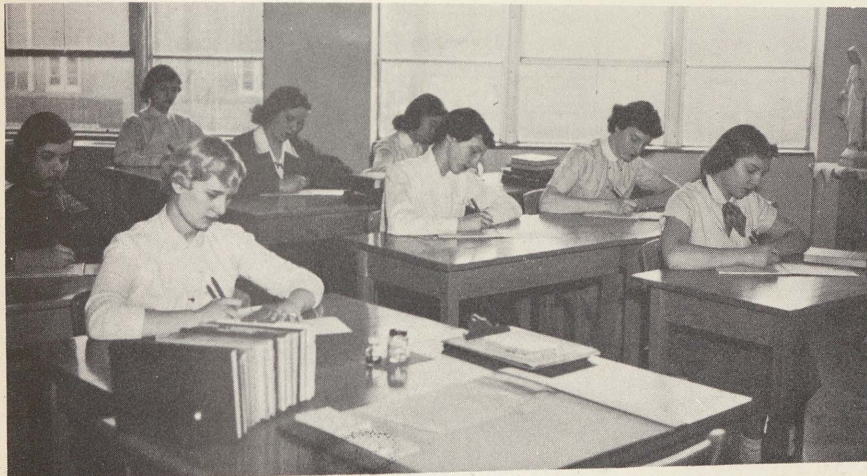

A knowledge of good citizenship is a necessary asset in today's world. Pupils who meet the requirements go forth into society well prepared to be of service.

Commercial

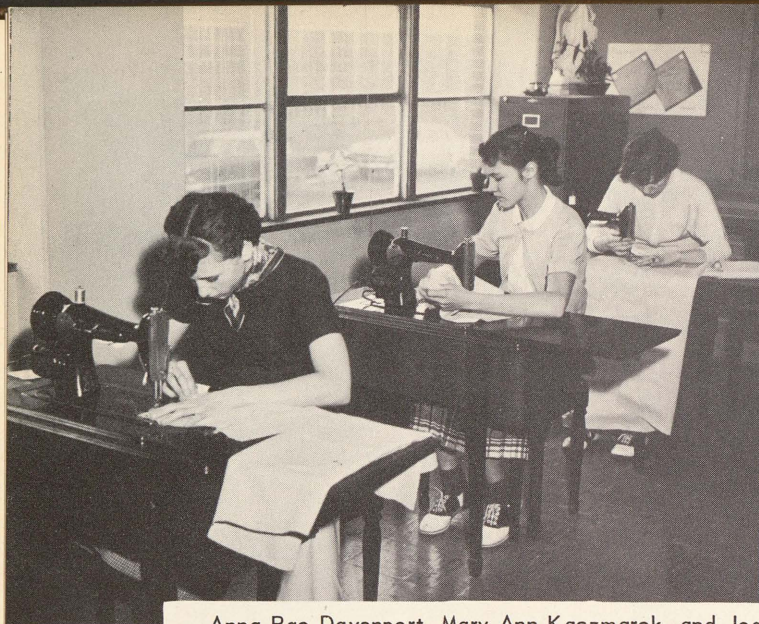

Rapid, accurate typing is the pattern set for these second-year typists.

Shorthand equips these students with a measure of business efficiency.

Mimeographing efficiency is demonstrated by Nancy Guerin, Mary Luplow, Valerie Hebner and Valerie Fogus.

Anna Rae Davenport, Mary Ann Kaczmarek, and Joann Evert "stitch in time, to save nine."

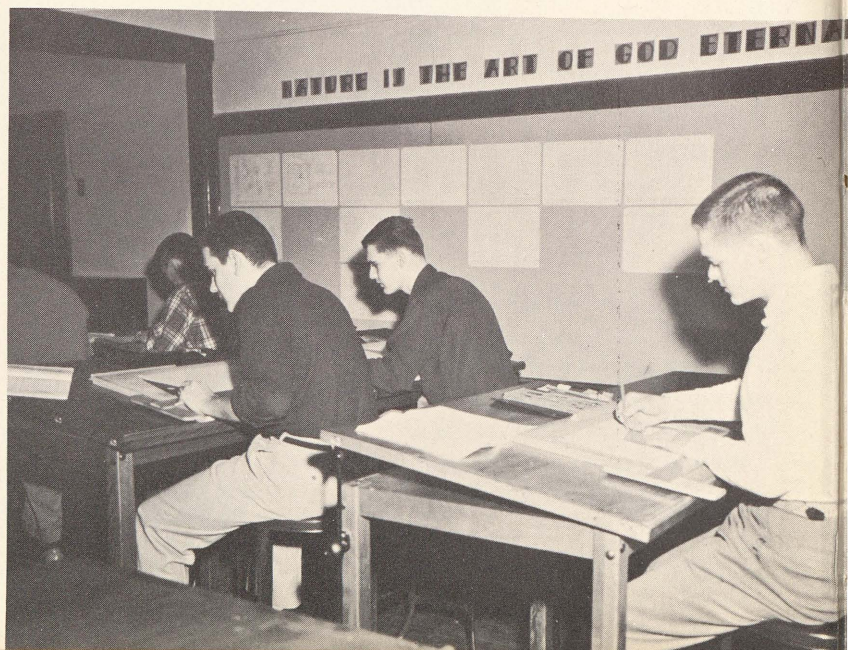

Elective

Tomorrow's homemakers enjoy today's sewing classes.

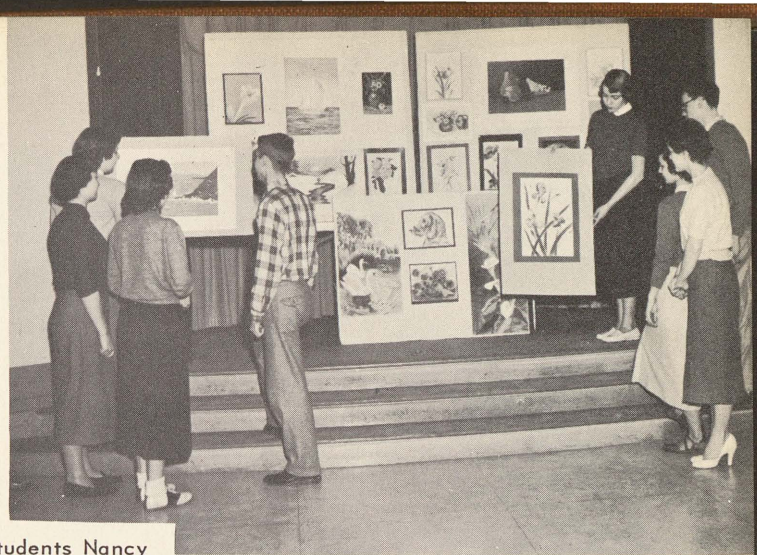

Cutting according to the pattern are Carol Schwinck, and Emma Jean Finazzi.

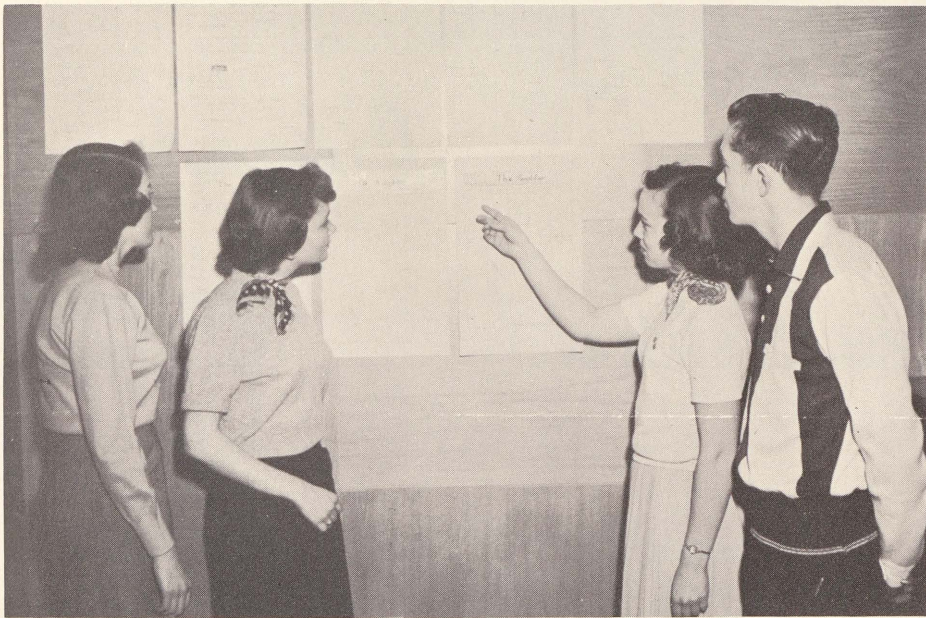

A section of the group of students engaged in the learning of experience of the language of lines -----Mechanical Drawing.

Courses

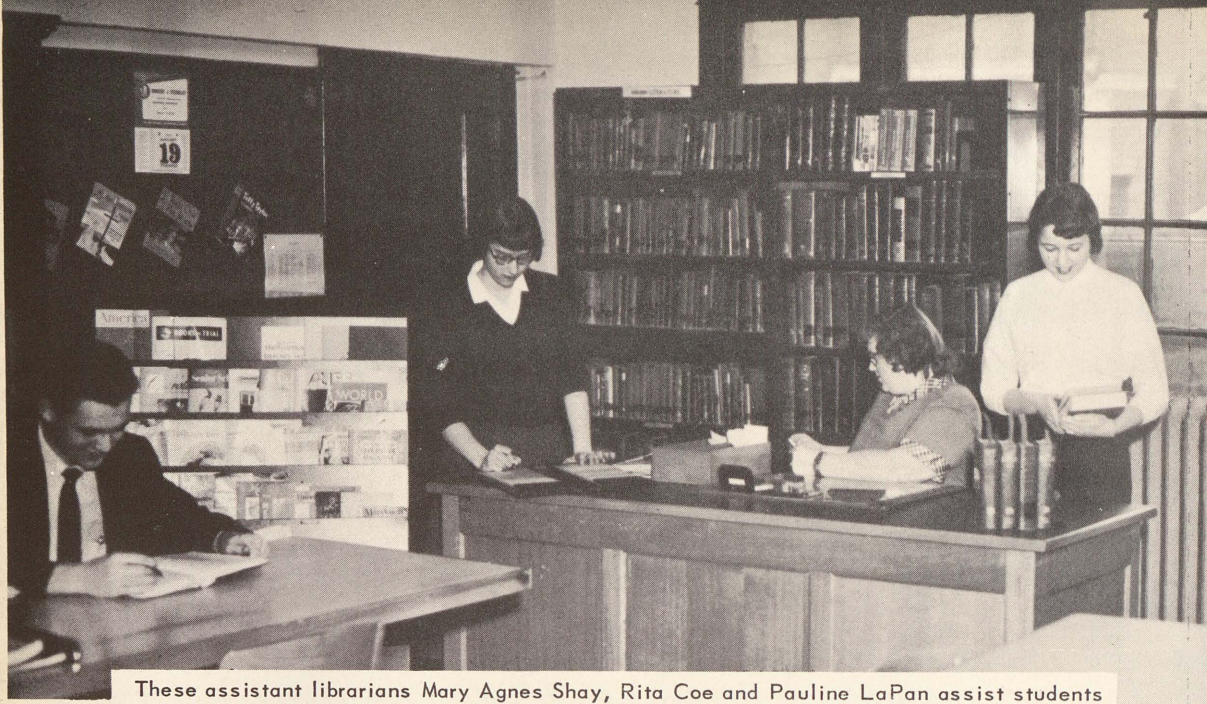

Selecting drawings for the Art Exhibit are senior art students Nancy Fraser, Martha Ann Schnepf, Connie Weiland, David Holland, Ann Jacobs, Michael Abbot, Suzanne Gallant and Mary Luplow.

Gail Reimus, Katherine Lawler, Mary Lou Mehalske and Lawrence Davison, members of the Journalism class discuss problems in layout.

Mr. Glick explains a problem in Business Math.

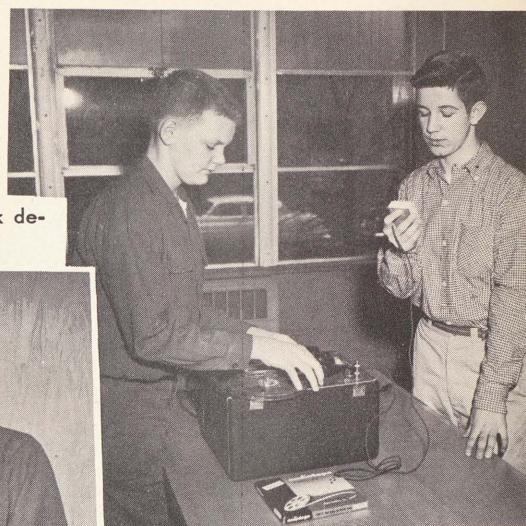

These assistant librarians Mary Agnes Shay, Rita Coe and Pauline LaPan assist students find the answers to Who, Why, Where. What, When and How.

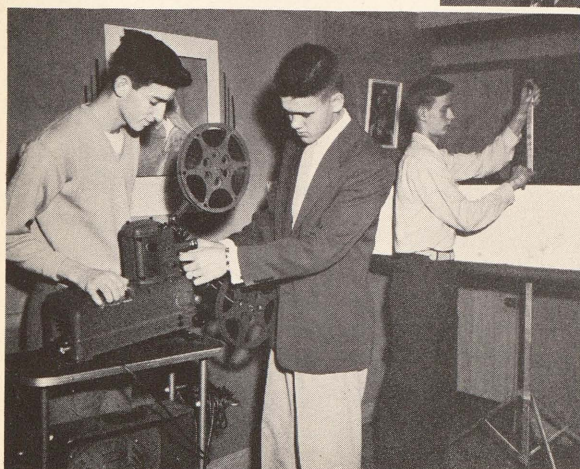

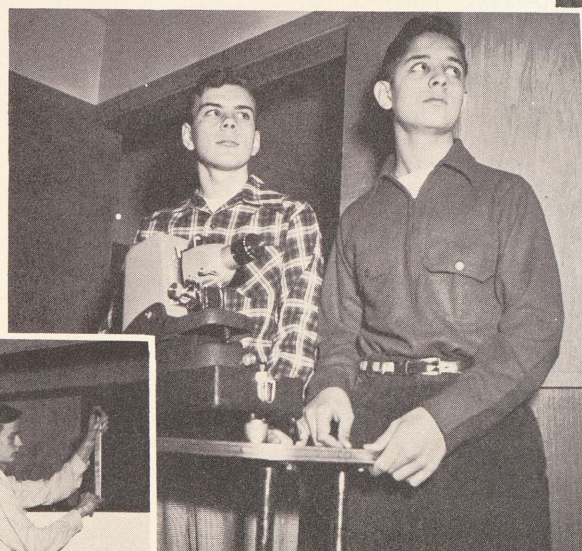

Librarians

Audio Visual

Kenneth Letherer and Robert Kostick demonstrate the tape recorder.

Leo Czymbor and Jean Bourcier set up the slide projector.

Movies play an important part in today's education. Here, Marvin Wallarrt, George Berghoff and Roland Watkins assemble the movie projector and screen.

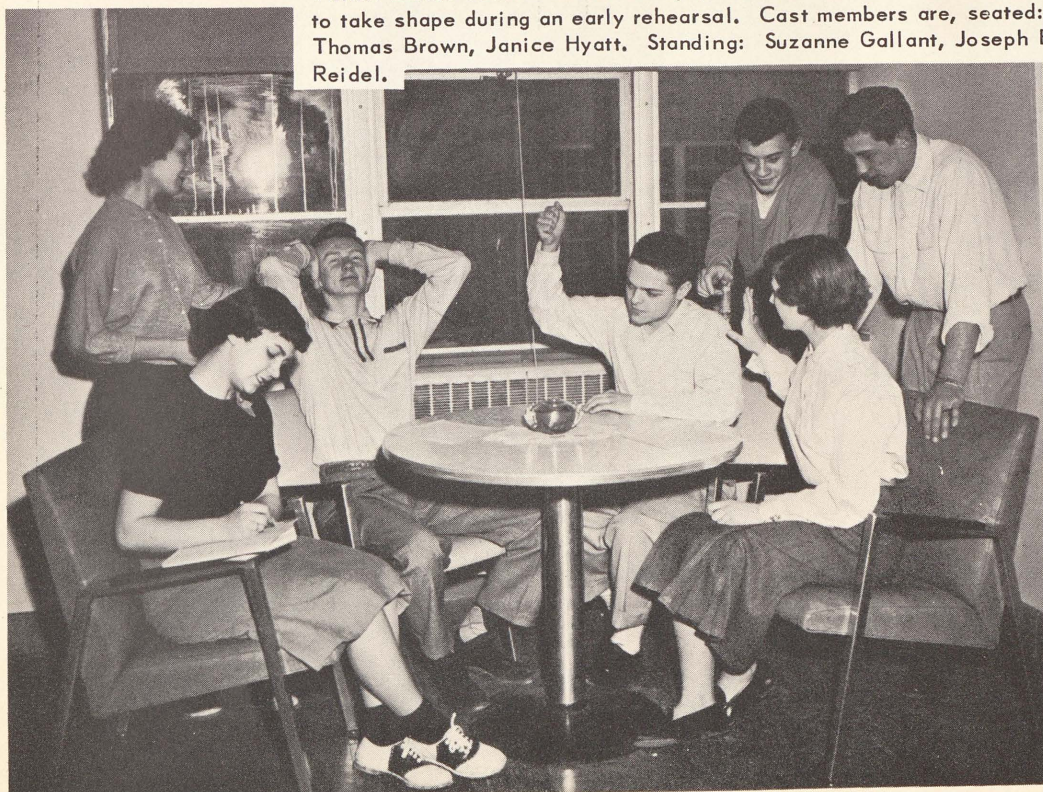

Senior Play

The Banks family appraise Kay's (Betty Stephen) future husband (James Black) with a critical eye. Other members of the cast are Elmer Maier, John Shay, John Michalski, Myrna Grams, and Mary Luplow.

Father of the Bride

National Honor Society

Sister Mary Imelda presents pins to the newly elected members of the National Honor Society for excellence in scholarship, character, leadership, and service. The new members are James Black, Jacqueline Lawler, Nancy Charrey, Judith Schultz, Gretchen Loos, Larry Fleischmann and Patrick McCartney.

Quill and Scroll

Students who place in the upper third of their class and who have done outstanding work in Journalism on editorial or business staff are elected to the Quill and Scroll. Chapter members receiving pins from Sister Mary Imelda, R.S.M., Principal, are Jacqueline Lawler, Betty Stephan, Mary Ellen Fava, and Gretchen Loos. Absent, Nancy Cherry.

Sister Mary Imelda discusses the activities of the Student Council with the members of the student senate Barbara Beitz, Thomas Brown, Betty Stephan and James Brussow.

Student Government

Social

Jesus and Mary enjoyed the simple joys of social life.
So too, Andrewites enjoy their social hours spent together.

Freshmen - Senior Party

Alvin Luplow and Suzanne Smith doing the honors in the Model T.

Jeanette Osmond and Adelle Prall pantomime "Tennessee Blues" at the October 22 Freshman Senior party.

Impersonating seniors in an old Model T was the delight of the freshmen at the Freshman-Senior "Please-to-meet-you-party."

The Pause That Refreshes

Andrewites enjoy the pause that refreshes at the Andrean-Amplifier Mardi Gras.

Football captain John Michalski escorts Her Majesty Queen Patricia to her throne at her royal ball on the evening of November 21.

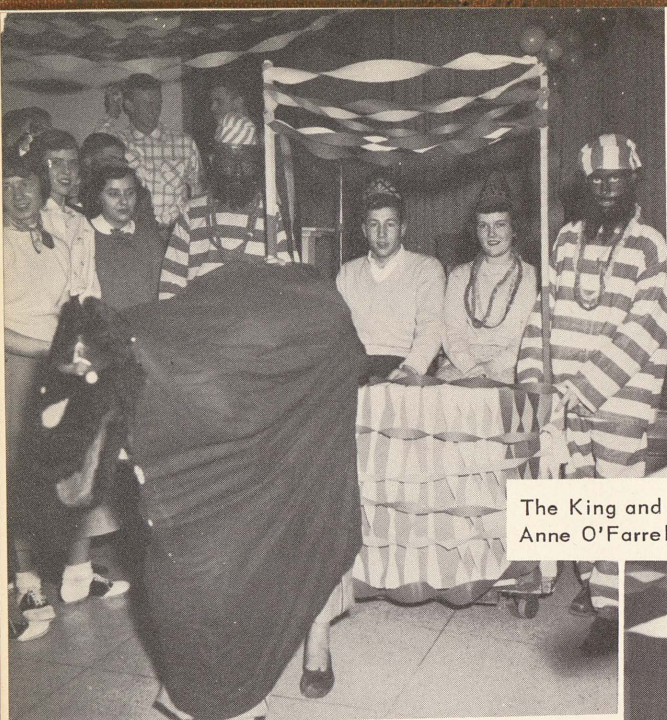

Queen's Ball

"Fellow the leader and trip lightly" -- a familiar scene at St. Andrew social gatherings.

The King and Queen of Mardi Gras, Clarence Rivette and Mary Anne O'Farrell ride among their loyal subjects.

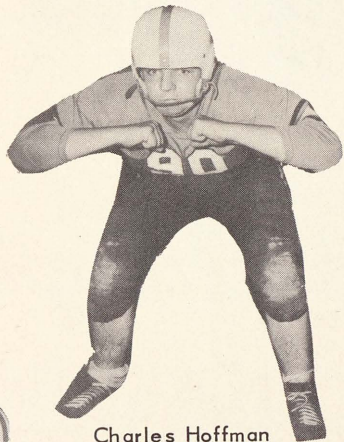

Prize winning costumes at the Mardi Gras include Raggety Ann and Andy, some of the young at heart, a jailbird, the old Gray Mare and the Wee Willie Winkies.

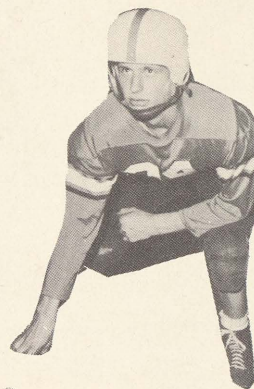

Gayety was the aura in which these students danced at the Mardi Gras on February 25.
